279.5 Administration of oaths and affirmations

An oath or affirmation to be sworn or made by a witness who is to give evidence under a direction may be administered either:

- (a) by means of the video link, in as nearly as practicable the same way as if the witness were to give the evidence at the courtroom or other place in Australia where the court is sitting; or
- (b) as follows:
  - (i) on behalf of the court and as directed by it;
  - (ii) by a person (whether an Australian official or not) authorised by the court;
  - (iii) at the place where the witness is to give the evidence.

279.6 Expenses

A court may make such orders as are just for payment of expenses incurred in connection with giving evidence under a direction by the court under this Division.

279.7 Other laws about foreign evidence not affected

This Division does not prevent any other law about taking evidence of a witness outside Australia from applying for the purposes of a proceeding.

300.4 Concurrent operation intended

- (1) This Part is not intended to exclude or limit the concurrent operation of any law of a State or Territory.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), this Part is not intended to exclude or limit the concurrent operation of a law of a State or Territory that makes:
  - (a) an act or omission that is an offence against a provision of this Part; or
  - (b) a similar act or omission;an offence against the law of the State or Territory.

If, in a prosecution for an offence against this Part, it is necessary for the prosecution to prove that a person knew, or was reckless as to whether, a substance or plant was a controlled drug, controlled plant, controlled precursor, border controlled drug, border controlled plant or border controlled precursor, it is not necessary for the prosecution to prove that the person knew, or was reckless as to, the particular identity of the controlled drug, controlled plant, controlled precursor, border controlled drug, border controlled plant or border controlled precursor.

Note: This section applies to a prosecution of an ancillary offence relating to this Part as well as to prosecution of a primary offence against this Part. This is because of:

- (a) sections 11.2, 11.2A and 11.3 (which treat certain combinations of physical and fault elements relating to this Part as being offences against this Part); and
- (b) section 11.6 (which has the effect that a reference to an offence against this Part includes a reference to an offence against section 11.1 (attempt), 11.4 (incitement) or 11.5 (conspiracy) that relates to this Part).

300.6 Recklessness as to nature of substance or plant sufficient for offence of attempt to commit an offence against this Part

Despite subsection 11.1(3), for the offence of attempting to commit an offence against this Part, recklessness is the fault element in relation to any of the following physical elements of the offence attempted:

- (a) that a substance is a controlled drug (a physical element of an offence against Division 302 or 305 or section 308.1, 309.2, 309.3, 309.4, 309.7 or 309.8);
- (b) that a plant is a controlled plant (a physical element of an offence against Division 303 or 304);

Section 300.6

- (d) that a substance is a border controlled drug or border controlled plant (a physical element of an offence against Subdivision A, B or C of Division 307 or section 309.12 or 309.13);
- (e) that a substance is a border controlled precursor (a physical element of an offence against Subdivision D of Division 307 or section 309.14 or 309.15).

Note: Proof of intention, knowledge or recklessness will satisfy a fault element of recklessness: see subsection 5.4(4).

Subdivision C—Serious drugs and precursors: emergency determinations

301.13 Emergency determinations—serious drugs

(1) The AFP Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine that:

Section 301.13

- (a) a substance, other than a growing plant, is a controlled drug or a border controlled drug; or
  - (b) a growing plant is a controlled plant or a border controlled plant.
- (1A) However:
- (a) a determination made under subsection (1) may provide that:
    - (i) a determined border controlled drug is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to be a border controlled drug; or
    - (ii) a determined border controlled plant is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to be a border controlled plant; only in relation to particular offences against this Part, or particular elements of those offences; and
  - (b) if such a determination so provides, then:
    - (i) the determined border controlled drug is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to be a border controlled drug; or
    - (ii) the determined border controlled plant is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to be a border controlled plant; only in relation to those offences or elements.

Conditions on making a determination

- (2) The AFP Minister must not make a determination under subsection (1) unless he or she is satisfied:
- (a) that there is an imminent and substantial risk that the substance or plant will be taken without appropriate medical supervision; and
  - (b) one or more of the following conditions is met:
    - (i) taking the substance or plant may create a risk of death or serious harm;
    - (ii) taking the substance or plant may have a physical or mental effect substantially similar to that caused by taking a listed serious drug;
    - (iii) there is limited or no known lawful use of the substance or plant in Australia, and the substance or plant has been

Section 301.14

- found by a public official in the course of the performance of the official's duties;
- (iv) the substance or plant may pose a substantial risk to the health or safety of the public.
- (3) The AFP Minister must not make more than one determination under this section in relation to a particular substance or plant.

301.14 Emergency determinations—serious drug precursors

- (1) The AFP Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine that a substance (including a growing plant) is a controlled precursor or a border controlled precursor.
- (1A) However:
- (a) a determination made under subsection (1) may provide that a determined border controlled precursor is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to be a border controlled precursor only in relation to particular offences against this Part, or particular elements of those offences; and
- (b) if such a determination so provides, then the determined border controlled precursor is taken, for the purposes of this Part, to be a border controlled precursor only in relation to those offences or elements.

Conditions on making a determination

- (2) The AFP Minister must not make a determination under subsection (1) unless he or she is satisfied that there is an imminent and substantial risk that the substance will be used to unlawfully manufacture a controlled drug.
- (3) The AFP Minister must not make more than one determination under this section in relation to a particular substance or plant.

301.15 Emergency determinations—commercial, marketable and trafficable quantities

- (1) The AFP Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine:

- (2) However, the AFP Minister may only make a determination of a commercial, marketable or trafficable quantity of a serious drug, controlled precursor or border controlled precursor under subsection (1) if there is no regulation currently in force listing such a quantity of the drug or precursor.

Note: The definitions of commercial quantity, marketable quantity and trafficable quantity in Subdivision B allow for regulations to list such quantities of serious drugs and precursors.

301.16 Emergency determinations—effectiveness

- (1) A determination under this Subdivision in relation to a substance (including a growing plant) or a quantity of such a substance has effect:
  - (a) from the time the determination is registered (within the meaning of the Legislation Act 2003); and
  - (b) for the period of 12 months from that registration, or such shorter period as is specified in the determination, as extended (if at all) under subsection (2).
- (2) If exceptional circumstances prevent the listing (by regulation) of the substance or quantity, to the same effect, the AFP Minister may, by legislative instrument, extend the period during which the determination is in force by a further period or periods.

Section 301.17

- (3) The AFP Minister must not extend the period under subsection (2) with the effect that the determination would stay in force for longer than 18 months after the time the determination is registered (within the meaning of the Legislation Act 2003).

- (7) For the purposes of this section, if the commission of an offence exposes a person to the risk of catching a disease that may give rise to a danger of harm to the person, the commission of the offence is taken to give rise to a danger of harm to the person.
- (8) For the purposes of this section, the commission of an offence gives rise to a danger of harm if the commission of the offence is ordinarily capable of creating a real, and not merely a theoretical, danger of harm.

  - (b) if the mistaken belief had been correct, the defendant would have been guilty of another offence against this Part; and
  - (c) the maximum penalty for the other offence is less than the maximum penalty for the alleged offence;the trier of fact may find the defendant:
  - (d) not guilty of the alleged offence; but
  - (e) guilty of the other offence.

Note: Before making the order, a Court must be satisfied of certain matters under section 395.12 or 395.13.

- (2) A community safety order may be made under section 395.12 or 395.13 in relation to a person (the serious offender) if:
  - (a) the person has been convicted of a serious foreign violent or sexual offence; and

Effect of community safety detention order

- (3) The effect of a community safety detention order is to commit the person to detention in a prison for the period the order is in force.

Note 1: The period must not be more than 3 years (see subsection 395.12(5)).

Note 2: See also:

395.7 Treatment of a serious offender in a prison under a community safety detention order

- (1) A serious offender who is detained in custody in a prison under a community safety detention order must be treated in a way that is appropriate to the offender's status as a person who is not serving a sentence of imprisonment, subject to any reasonable requirements necessary to maintain:
- (a) the management, security or good order of the prison; and
  - (b) the safe custody or welfare of the offender or any prisoners; and
  - (c) the safety and protection of the community.
- (2) The offender must not be accommodated or detained in the same area or unit of the prison as persons who are in prison for the purpose of serving sentences of imprisonment unless:

  - (b) it is necessary for the security or good order of the prison or the safe custody or welfare of the offender or prisoners; or
  - (c) it is necessary for the safety and protection of the community; or
  - (d) the offender elects to be so accommodated or detained.

Section 395.8

---

- (3) This section does not apply if the offender is serving a sentence of imprisonment.

Subdivision C—Making community safety orders

395.8 Applying for a community safety order

- (1) The Immigration Minister, or a legal representative of the Immigration Minister, (the applicant) may apply to a Supreme Court of a State or Territory for either of the following:
- (a) a community safety detention order in relation to a serious offender;
  - (b) a community safety supervision order in relation to a serious offender.

Note: The court may make a community safety supervision order under section 395.13 even if a community safety detention order is applied for.

- (2) The Immigration Minister must ensure that reasonable inquiries are made to ascertain any facts known to any Commonwealth law enforcement officer that would reasonably be regarded as supporting a finding that:
- (a) if the application is for a community safety detention order—neither a community safety detention order nor a community safety supervision order should be made in relation to the offender; or
  - (b) if the application is for a community safety supervision order—the community safety supervision order should not be made in relation to the offender.

Content of application

- (3) The application must:
- (a) include any report or other document that the applicant intends, at the time of the application, to rely on in relation to the application; and
  - (b) include:

Section 395.8

- (i) a copy of any material in the possession of the applicant; and
- (ii) a statement of any facts that the applicant is aware of; that would reasonably be regarded as supporting a finding that the order or orders mentioned in paragraph (2)(a) or (b) (as the case requires) should not be made, except any information, material or facts that are likely to be protected by public interest immunity (whether the claim for public interest immunity is to be made by the Immigration Minister or any other person); and
- (c) include information about the offender's age; and
- (d) if the offender is a holder under the Migration Act 1958 of a visa that is subject to one or more conditions—specify the conditions; and
- (e) request that the order be in force for a specified period; and
- (f) if the application is for a community safety supervision order—include the following material:
  - (i) a copy of the proposed conditions;
  - (ii) an explanation as to why each of the proposed conditions should be imposed on the offender;
  - (iii) if the Immigration Minister is aware of any facts relating to why any of those conditions should not be imposed on the offender—a statement of those facts, except any facts that are likely to be protected by public interest immunity (whether the claim for public interest immunity is to be made by the Immigration Minister or any other person);
  - (iv) if the offender is subject to an order under a law of a State or Territory that is equivalent to a community safety order—a copy of that order; and
- (g) if a report was obtained under section 395.43 in relation to the offender—include a copy of the report.

Note 1: For paragraph (3)(e), the period must not be more than 3 years (see subsection 395.12(5) and paragraph 395.13(5)(d)).

Note 2: Evidence may also be adduced later under section 395.28.

Section 395.9

---

Note 3: A copy of the application must be given to the serious offender under section 395.29.

395.9 Appointment of and assessment by relevant expert

- (1) If an application for a community safety order is made under section 395.8 to a Supreme Court of a State or Territory in relation to a serious offender, the Court must hold a preliminary hearing to determine whether to appoint one or more relevant experts.
- (2) The hearing must be held within 28 days after a copy of the application is given to the offender under subsection 395.29(2).
- (3) The Court may, either at the preliminary hearing or at any later time in the proceeding, appoint one or more relevant experts if the Court considers that doing so is likely to materially assist the Court in deciding whether to make a community safety order in relation to the offender.
- (4) The Immigration Minister or the offender, or a legal representative of the Immigration Minister or the offender, may nominate one or more relevant experts for the purposes of subsection (3).
- (5) The relevant expert who is appointed must:
  - (a) conduct an assessment of the risk of the offender committing a serious violent or sexual offence; and
  - (b) provide a report of the expert's assessment to the Court, the Immigration Minister and the offender.

Note: For giving documents to a serious offender who is detained in custody, see section 395.33.

Attendance and participation at assessment

- (6) The offender must attend the assessment.

Note: The assessment may be conducted over a number of sessions.
- (7) The answer to a question or information given at the assessment, and answering a question or giving information at the assessment, are not admissible in evidence against the offender in:

Section 395.9

---

- (a) any criminal proceedings, except any proceedings relating to sentencing for an offence against this Division (including any appeal in relation to those proceedings); or
  - (b) any civil proceedings against the offender, except proceedings under this Division (including any appeal in relation to those proceedings).
- (8) The Court must ensure that the effect of subsections (6), (7) and (11) is explained to the offender.

Contents of report

- (9) The expert's report may include any one or more of the following matters:
- (a) the expert's assessment of the risk of the offender committing a serious violent or sexual offence;
  - (b) reasons for that assessment;
  - (c) the pattern or progression to date of behaviour on the part of the offender in relation to serious violent or sexual offences, and an indication of the nature of any likely future behaviour on the offender's part in relation to serious violent or sexual offences;
  - (d) efforts made to date by the offender to address the causes of the offender's behaviour in relation to serious violent or sexual offences, including whether the offender has actively participated in any rehabilitation or treatment programs;
  - (e) if the offender has participated in any rehabilitation or treatment programs—whether or not this participation has had a positive effect on the offender;
  - (f) any relevant background of the offender, including developmental and social factors;
  - (g) factors that might increase or decrease any risks that have been identified of the offender committing a serious violent or sexual offence;
  - (h) any other matters the expert considers relevant.

Section 395.10

Other relevant experts

- (10) This section does not prevent the Immigration Minister or the offender, or a legal representative of the Immigration Minister or the offender, from calling their own relevant expert as a witness in the proceeding.

Assessments conducted for certain purposes

- (11) Without limiting subsection (7), an assessment of an offender conducted under paragraph (5)(a), and the report of the assessment, may be taken into account in proceedings to make, vary or review any community safety order in relation to the offender.

395.10 Determining an application for a community safety order

Determining applications for community safety detention orders

- (1) If an application is made under section 395.8 to the Supreme Court of a State or Territory for a community safety detention order in relation to a serious offender, the Court may determine the application by:
- (a) making a community safety detention order under section 395.12; or
  - (b) making a community safety supervision order under section 395.13; or
  - (c) dismissing the application.

Determining applications for community safety supervision orders

- (2) If an application is made under section 395.8 to the Supreme Court of a State or Territory for a community safety supervision order in relation to a serious offender, the Court may determine the application by:
- (a) making a community safety supervision order under section 395.13; or
  - (b) dismissing the application.

395.11 Matters a Court must have regard to in making a community safety order

- (1) In deciding whether the Court is satisfied as referred to in paragraph 395.12(1)(b) or 395.13(1)(b) in relation to a serious offender, a Supreme Court of a State or Territory must have regard to the following matters:
- (a) the object of this Division;
  - (b) any report of an assessment received from a relevant expert, and the level of the offender's participation in the assessment, under:
    - (i) section 395.9; or
    - (ii) section 395.43;
  - (c) the results of any other assessment conducted by a relevant expert of the risk of the offender committing a serious violent or sexual offence, and the level of the offender's participation in any such assessment;
  - (d) any report, relating to the extent to which the offender can reasonably and practicably be managed in the community, that has been prepared by:
    - (i) the relevant State or Territory corrective services; or
    - (ii) any other person or body who is competent to assess that extent;
  - (e) any treatment or rehabilitation programs in which the offender has had an opportunity to participate, and the level of the offender's participation in any such programs;
  - (f) the level of the offender's compliance with any obligations to which the offender is or has been subject while:
    - (i) on release on parole for any serious violent or sexual offence; or
    - (ii) subject to a community safety order;
  - (g) the level of the offender's compliance with any conditions to which a visa that the offender is, or has been, a holder of under the Migration Act 1958 is or has been subject;

Section 395.12

- (h) the offender's history of any prior convictions for, and findings of guilt made in relation to, any serious violent or sexual offence;
  - (i) if information is available about the offender's history of any prior convictions for, and findings of guilt made in relation to, any serious foreign violent or sexual offence—that information;
  - (j) the views of the sentencing court at the time any sentence for any serious violent or sexual offence was imposed on the offender;
  - (k) if information is available about the views of the sentencing court at the time any sentence for any serious foreign violent or sexual offence was imposed on the offender—that information;
  - (l) whether the offender is subject to any order under a law of a State or Territory that is equivalent to a community safety order, and if so, the conditions of the order;
  - (m) any other information as to the risk of the offender committing a serious violent or sexual offence.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the Court from having regard to any other matter the Court considers relevant.
- (3) To avoid doubt, section 395.27 (civil evidence and procedure rules in relation to community safety order proceedings) applies to the Court's consideration of the matters referred to in subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

395.12 Making a community safety detention order

- (1) A Supreme Court of a State or Territory may make a written order under this subsection if:
- (a) an application is made in accordance with section 395.8 for a community safety detention order in relation to a serious offender; and
  - (b) after having regard to matters in accordance with section 395.11, the Court is satisfied to a high degree of

Section 395.12

probability, on the basis of admissible evidence, that the offender poses an unacceptable risk of seriously harming the community by committing a serious violent or sexual offence; and

- (c) the Court is satisfied that there is no less restrictive measure available under this Division that would be effective in protecting the community from serious harm by addressing the unacceptable risk; and
- (d) in a case where the offender is a holder under the Migration Act 1958 of a visa that is subject to conditions—the Court is satisfied that the conditions would not be effective in protecting the community from serious harm by addressing the unacceptable risk.

Note 1: The rules of evidence and procedure for civil matters apply when the Court has regard to matters in accordance with section 395.11, as referred to in paragraph (1)(b) of this section (see subsection 395.11(3) and section 395.27).

Note 2: For paragraph (1)(c), an example of a less restrictive measure that is available under this Division is a community safety supervision order. A Court can make a community safety supervision order under section 395.13 even if a community safety detention order was applied for (see subsection 395.10(1)).

- (2) If the Court is not satisfied as mentioned in paragraph (1)(b) or (c) (or both), but is satisfied as mentioned in paragraph (1)(d), then the Court must:

- (a) seek the following material from the Immigration Minister:
  - (i) a copy of the proposed conditions that would be sought for a community safety supervision order in relation to the offender;
  - (ii) an explanation as to why each of the proposed conditions should be imposed on the offender;
  - (iii) if the Immigration Minister is aware of any facts relating to why any of those conditions should not be imposed on the offender—a statement of those facts, except any facts that are likely to be protected by public interest immunity (whether the claim for public interest

Section 395.13

immunity is to be made by the Immigration Minister or any other person); and

- (b) consider whether to make a community safety supervision order under section 395.13 in relation to the offender.

Note: A copy of the material must be given to the serious offender under section 395.29.

Onus of satisfying Court

- (3) The Immigration Minister bears the onus of satisfying the Court of the matters referred to in paragraphs (1)(b), (c) and (d).

Period of order

- (4) The order must specify the period during which it is in force.

Note: The order may be suspended during the period that it is in force if the offender is detained under the Migration Act 1958 (see section 395.41) or detained in custody in a prison other than as a result of the order (see section 395.42).

- (5) The period must be a period of no more than 3 years that the Court is satisfied is reasonably necessary to protect the community from serious harm by addressing the unacceptable risk.

Court may make successive community safety detention orders

- (6) To avoid doubt, subsection (5) does not prevent a Supreme Court of a State or Territory making a community safety detention order in relation to a serious offender that begins to be in force immediately after a previous community safety detention order in relation to the offender ceases to be in force.

395.13 Making a community safety supervision order

- (1) A Supreme Court of a State or Territory may make a written order under this subsection, in accordance with sections 395.14 and 395.15, if:

- (a) any of the following applies:

Section 395.13

- (i) an application is made in accordance with section 395.8 for a community safety supervision order in relation to a serious offender;
  - (ii) an application is made in accordance with section 395.8 for a community safety detention order in relation to a serious offender, and the Court is not satisfied as mentioned in paragraph 395.12(1)(b) or (c) (or both), but is satisfied as mentioned in paragraph 395.12(1)(d);
  - (iii) the Court has reviewed under section 395.25 a community safety detention order in relation to a serious offender and the Court is not satisfied as mentioned in paragraph 395.25(6)(a); and
- (b) after having regard to matters in accordance with section 395.11, the Court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities, on the basis of admissible evidence, that the offender poses an unacceptable risk of seriously harming the community by committing a serious violent or sexual offence; and
- (c) in a case where the offender is a holder under the Migration Act 1958 of a visa that is subject to conditions—the Court is satisfied that the conditions would not be effective in protecting the community from serious harm by addressing the unacceptable risk; and
- (d) the Court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that:
- (i) each of the conditions; and
  - (ii) the combined effect of all of the conditions;
- to be imposed on the offender by the order is reasonably necessary, and reasonably appropriate and adapted, for the purpose of protecting the community from serious harm by addressing the unacceptable risk.

Determining whether conditions are reasonably necessary, appropriate and adapted

- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(d), in determining whether each of the conditions to be imposed on the offender by the order is reasonably necessary, and reasonably appropriate and adapted, the

Section 395.13

---

Court must take into account, as a paramount consideration in all cases, the object of this Division (see section 395.1).

- (3) If the coming into effect of the order would result in the offender being taken to be granted a visa under section 76AA of the Migration Act 1958, then, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(d) of this section, in determining whether each of the conditions to be imposed on the offender by the order is reasonably necessary, and reasonably appropriate and adapted, the Court must take into account the conditions to which the visa would be subject.

Onus of satisfying Court

- (4) The Immigration Minister bears the onus of satisfying the Court of:
- (a) the matters referred to in paragraphs (1)(b) and (d); and
  - (b) if paragraph (1)(c) applies—the matters referred to in paragraph (1)(c).

Content of order

- (5) The order must:
- (a) state that the Court is satisfied of:
    - (i) the matters mentioned in paragraphs (1)(b) and (d); and
    - (ii) if paragraph (1)(c) applies—the matters mentioned in paragraph (1)(c); and
  - (b) specify the name of the offender to whom the order relates; and
  - (c) specify all of the conditions, and any exemption conditions, that are to be imposed in accordance with section 395.14 or 395.15 on the offender by the order; and
  - (d) specify the period during which the order is to be in force, which must be a period of no more than 3 years that the Court is satisfied is reasonably necessary to protect the community from serious harm by addressing the unacceptable risk; and
  - (e) state that the offender's lawyer may request a copy of the order.

Section 395.14

Note: The order may be suspended during the period that it is in force if the offender is detained under the Migration Act 1958 (see section 395.41) or detained in custody in a prison (see section 395.42).

Court may make successive community safety supervision orders

- (6) To avoid doubt, paragraph (5)(d) does not prevent a Supreme Court of a State or Territory making a community safety supervision order in relation to a serious offender that begins to be in force immediately after a previous community safety supervision order, or community safety detention order, in relation to the offender ceases to be in force.

Automatic revocation of community safety detention orders etc.

- (7) A community safety detention order that is in force in relation to a serious offender is revoked by force of this subsection if:
- (a) a Court makes a community safety supervision order in relation to the offender; and
  - (b) the community safety detention order is in force immediately before the community safety supervision order begins to be in force.

395.14 Conditions of community safety supervision orders

- (1) The conditions that a Court may impose on a serious offender by a community safety supervision order are:
- (a) any conditions that the Court is satisfied; and
  - (b) those conditions whose combined effect the Court is satisfied;
- on the balance of probabilities, are reasonably necessary, and reasonably appropriate and adapted, for the purpose of protecting the community from serious harm by addressing the unacceptable risk of the offender committing a serious violent or sexual offence.

Note: The Court may, under section 395.15, specify conditions from which exemptions may be granted.

Section 395.14

---

- (2) If the offender is subject to an order under a law of a State or Territory that is equivalent to a community safety order, the Court must consider the conditions under that State or Territory order in imposing conditions in accordance with subsection (1).

General rules about conditions

- (3) To avoid doubt, without limiting subsection 33(3A) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, a condition imposed under this section may:
- (a) prohibit or restrict specified conduct of the offender, or impose obligations on the offender; or
  - (b) impose restrictions and obligations on the offender in relation to classes of conduct, and prohibit other classes of that conduct; or
  - (c) impose different restrictions, obligations and prohibitions in relation to different classes of conduct; or
  - (d) for conduct that is prohibited by a condition described in a paragraph of subsection (5) of this section—impose restrictions and obligations on the offender in relation to that conduct instead of prohibiting that conduct; or
  - (e) for conduct described in a paragraph of subsection (5) or (7) of this section—impose different restrictions, obligations and prohibitions in relation to that conduct.
- (4) A condition imposed under this section must not require the offender to remain at specified premises for more than 12 hours within any 24 hours.

General conditions

- (5) Without limiting this section, the conditions that the Court may impose in accordance with subsection (1) include conditions relating to the following:
- (a) that the offender not be present at one or more of the following:
    - (i) specified areas or places;

Section 395.14

---

- (ii) specified classes of areas or places;
  - (iii) any area or place determined by a specified authority;
  - (b) that the offender reside at specified premises, and not begin to reside at any other premises without the prior permission of a specified authority;
  - (c) that the offender remain at specified premises between specified times each day, or on specified days, subject to subsection (4);
  - (d) that the offender not leave the State or Territory in which the offender's residence is located;
  - (e) that the offender not change the offender's name, or use any name that is not specified in the order;
  - (f) that the offender not apply for any licence to operate equipment, machinery, a heavy vehicle or a weapon, or any licence to possess a weapon;
  - (g) that the offender not communicate or associate by any means (including through third parties) with one or more of the following:
    - (i) specified individuals;
    - (ii) specified classes of individuals;
    - (iii) any individuals determined by a specified authority;
  - (h) that the offender not access or use specified forms of telecommunication or other technology (including the internet);
  - (i) that the offender not possess or use specified articles or substances;
  - (j) that the offender not carry out specified activities;
  - (k) that the offender not engage in one or more of the following:
    - (i) specified work;
    - (ii) specified classes of work;
    - (iii) specified activities relating to specified work or classes of work;
  - (l) that the offender not engage in any training or education without the prior permission of a specified authority;
  - (m) that the offender do any or all of the following:

Section 395.14

---

- (i) attend and participate in treatment, rehabilitation or intervention programs or activities;
  - (ii) undertake psychological or psychiatric assessment or counselling;
- as specified in the order or as directed by a specified authority;
- (n) that the offender attend and participate in interviews and assessments (including for the purposes of paragraph (m)) as specified in the order or as directed by a specified authority;
  - (o) that the offender allow the results of the interviews and assessments referred to in paragraph (n), and any other specified information, to be disclosed to a specified authority;
  - (p) that the offender provide specified information to a specified authority within a specified period or before a specified event;
  - (q) that the offender comply with any reasonable direction given to the offender by a specified authority in relation to any specified condition (whether or not the condition is imposed in accordance with this subsection).

Note: See also subsection (10) and section 395.2 in relation to references to premises, reside or residence, and work.

- (6) If a condition of the order authorises a specified authority to give a direction, the specified authority may give a direction only if the specified authority is satisfied that the direction is reasonable in all the circumstances to give effect to:
  - (a) the condition; or
  - (b) the object of this Division (see section 395.1).

Conditions relating to monitoring and enforcement

- (7) Without limiting this section, the conditions that the Court may impose in accordance with subsection (1) include conditions relating to the following:

Section 395.14

---

- (a) that the offender submit to testing by a specified authority in relation to the possession or use of specified articles or substances;
- (b) that the offender allow the offender to be photographed by a specified authority;
- (c) that the offender allow impressions of the offender's fingerprints to be taken by a specified authority;

- (e) a condition that:
  - (i) the person carry at all times a specified mobile phone; and
  - (ii) the person be available to answer any call from a specified authority or, as soon as reasonably practicable, return a call that the person was unable to answer; and
  - (iii) the person comply with specified directions, or any directions given by a specified authority, in relation to the condition in subparagraph (i) or (ii);

Section 395.14

---

- (i) search the offender; and
- (ii) search the offender's residence or any premises which the offender intends to be the offender's residence; and
- (iii) search any other premises under the offender's control; and
- (iv) seize any item found during those searches, including to allow the item to be examined forensically;
- (j) that the offender facilitate access (including by providing passwords or in any other way) to one or more of the following:
  - (i) electronic equipment or technology;
  - (ii) any data held within, or accessible from, any electronic equipment or technology;owned or controlled by the offender, for the purposes of a police officer searching and seizing any such equipment or accessing such data (or both).

Note 1: For paragraphs (b) and (c), restrictions apply to the use of photographs or impressions of fingerprints (see section 395.16).

Note 2: For paragraph (d), see also section 395.17 (obligations relating to monitoring devices).

- (8) A power exercised under a condition imposed in accordance with subsection (7) (other than a power to give a direction) may be exercised only if the person exercising the power is satisfied that it is reasonably necessary to do so in order to:
  - (a) give effect to the order; or
  - (b) facilitate or monitor compliance with the order.

Access to lawyers

- (9) This section does not affect the offender's right to contact, communicate or associate with the offender's lawyer unless the offender's lawyer is a specified individual, or an individual in a specified class of individuals, as mentioned in paragraph (5)(g). If the offender's lawyer is so specified, the offender may contact, communicate or associate with any other lawyer who is not so specified.

References to work

- (10) In subsection (5), a reference to work includes a reference to voluntary work.

395.15 Conditions where exemptions may be granted
